

Regulations for Student Recruitment and Screening Group, German Department, Wenzao Ursuline University of Languages

Implemented with authorization of the College of European and Asian Languages on Oct. 21th, 2022

approved by Department Meeting on February 24, 2010

amendment by Department Meeting on September 5, 2013

amendment by Department Meeting on January 3, 2020

approved by College Meeting on March 4, 2020

examined by the University's Student Recruitment Committee on April 28, 2020

approved by Department Meeting on September 16, 2022 approved by College Meeting on September 28, 2022 examined by the University's Student Recruitment Committee on October 21, 2022

Article I For the purpose of student recruitment and screening, the group of student recruitment and screening is established on the basis of the Regulations of Student Recruitment Committee of Wenzao Ursuline University Languages, with regulations as follows.

Article II The ad hoc group is composed of one coordinator, this position to be assumed by the Chairperson of German Department, and three to five committee members selected from among the faculty of German Department.

Article III The missions of the ad hoc group include: the establishment of the Department's evaluation criteria for student recruitment and examinations; definition of screening standards; definition of admittance standards; establishment of admittance procedures; definition of admittance quotas, and others.

Article IV The position of each group member is without remuneration; the service term is one year. Members may be reelected.

Article V Group members must excuse themselves from those cases of recruitment and screening in which third-degree relatives or closer are involved.

Article VI The decisions made by the ad hoc group must be reviewed by the departmental meeting, which can change the contents of the decisions when necessary.

Article VII Matters that are not covered by the rules and procedures above should be dealt with according to the relevant WUUL regulations.

Article VIII After the approval in the department meeting, the regulations and any

Regulations for Student Recruitment and Screening Group, German Department, Wenzao Ursuline University of Languages

Implemented with authorization of the College of European and Asian Languages on Oct. 21th, 2022
amendments will be implemented with the authorization of Dean of the College of European and Asian Languages.